HIGH

The classes of January and June,
Nineteen twenty-nine,
present to you the account of another year in the history of the West High School.

WEST

West High School

Alma Mater

Proudly waves old West High's emblem
Black and orange fair,
Floats triumphant in the breezes
No dishonor there.

Student days have fondest memories,
Comrades here we stand,
As our troth to Alma Mater
Pledge we hand in hand.

From thy halls dear Alma Mater
We at length must part,
But thy memory shall not perish
From one student's heart.

Far away on life's broad highway
All must fortune try;
Still our loving hearts shall cherish
Thoughts of thee, West High.

The Service Corps

The Service Corps

The Service Corps, one of the youngest organizations in the school, is an organization without officers and without a constitution. With service the reason for its being, service its motto, and service its impelling motive, it has risen to a position worthy of recognition in West High School.

The Class Plays

The Class Plays

The Junior Play

Directed by Mrs. Charles Ellis

What consternation a coy young maiden, having recently returned from France with a carload of Frenchy frocks, can cause in a small town. That's what happened when the Combined Classes of '29 presented "Thank You" in the school auditorium, on the evening of April 27, 1928.

The Senior Play

Directed by Mrs. Charles Ellis

"Sign Here Please", the second dramatic attempt of the Classes of '29, kept the audience in suspense while the hero made love to a book agent and tried to keep a chorus girl out of sight. The Senior Play was presented in the school auditorium on the evening of December 14, 1928.

The A Capella Choir

A Capella Choir

Under Direction of Alfred Spouse

The progressiveness of West High's activities is again demonstrated by the inauguration of an a capella choir, formerly the Combined Glee Clubs. Unaccompanied choir singing has been popular in colleges for several years. West High is a pioneer in the development of a capella singing in the secondary schools.

The 1928 season saw the Orange and Black continue as a championship team. Under the leadership of "Vinny" Black, but one game was lost. The loss of Clark from the forward line was the cause of the single break in a string of victories.

The work of Black and DeForest in the fullback positions kept West High out of danger, and "Al" Atterbury, one of the best goalies West High has ever turned out, is to be thanked for his fine work.

The halfback positions were played skillfully by Rohrer and Nichols, Rohrer taking the lead.

In the forward line were four veterans: Clark, Niermeyer, Milanetti, and D'Andrea, with Williams as a fifth man.

Tuttle, McConnell, and Townsend also saw service.

Swimming and Track

Swimming

Under the capable leadership of Captain Frank Sanford and Manager Ted Noun, The West High Swimming Team took the city championship again this season.

Lloyd Kraushaar and Don Smith swam the free-style sprints in good form. Frank Sanford and Dudley Tennant exhibited prowess in the 100 yard breast stroke and medley swims. Hoepfl and Sullivan were valuable men in the 100 and 200 yard free-style events. Mark Wagoner proved his worth in the backstroke by copping the interscholastic championship. Art Austin also performed well. Len Maxwell and Ted Noun gave rare exhibits in the plain and fancy diving events, winning first and second place, and defeating all comers in both the sectional and city meets.

The season ended with the annual New York State Championship Meet at Colgate University. Six West High men, Kraushaar, Tennant, Wagoner, Maxwell, Noun, and Sanford, qualified for the meet.

Track-Cross Country

The West High Cross Country team enjoyed a very successful season this year, not only winning the city and sectional championship meets, but also finishing the season undefeated. Only four veterans are leaving this year, so the team has a fine chance of repeating its performance next season.

The Track team also hopes to repeat the splendid performance given last spring, since Despard, McConnell, Warren, Jones, Fisher, Niblack, Cole, Stevens, and other veterans are back and raring to get into action. Further evidence of a successful season is entertained in the fact that the team has been acquainting itself with the technical knowledge of the different events, as well as keeping in condition during the winter months by light indoor practices.

The distance and sprint events are especially strong this spring, for the victorious Cross Country team, under the leadership of Captain-elect Worden, Warren, Jones, and Stevens, are ready to show the school what they can do; and Manager Despard, Captain McConnell, and Fisher, the Occidental sprint stars, are getting ready to strut their stuff.

This year's team should develop into one of the strongest teams which has represented West High for some time.

Basketball

A comparison of the last two years' records shows basketball to be a declining sport in West High School.

Every man put his best into the fight, but to no avail. The fact that West High School has no court of its own, and has the use of no convenient court for regular practice, seems to be one of the greatest factors in the lack of success experienced by the team.

Captain Milanetti, Williams, Maxwell, Black, and D'Andrea made up the team, with the assistance of Nichols, Brownlee and Serenati. Williams and D'Andrea starred for the team.

Maxwell, the flash of the forwards, proved himself to be a hard man to stop. Next season, Maxwell will lead the team on the field. D'Andrea must be given much credit for his work.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association is fast becoming a very important part of school life in West High.

Within the past year, much has been done toward the organization and management of girls' sports in the school.

The Council has brought about some very worthwhile innovations, the most outstanding being a plan for a field day at the West High Athletic Field, this spring. All Rochester high schools will be invited to join. Teams will be made up in such a way that inter-school competition will be avoided.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A LITTLE THOUGHT AND ORIGINALITY MAKE

It was the desire of the Annual Board this year to produce a Yearbook which would not only be artistic and original, but which would be ENTIRELY DIFFERENT from any previous book.

Much thought and careful study have been put into this book and thru the close co-operation of the STAFF and the executives of THE LEO HART CO., we believe the goal has been attained.

The Editorial Staff which turns its book over to us has a right to expect an Annual that is DISTINCTIVELY DIFFERENT.

A Few Years of West High

Being a hoard of interesting information which Babbie gleaned from the West High Scrap Book, plus several entries from her own diary; from the time when a few bold people tried "daring new waltz steps" to the present.

1910

BIG TO-DO OVER APPOINTMENT OF NEW PRINCIPAL. William Marvin Bennett's name flashes across headlines, as city-wide interest is aroused in appointment of principal for West High School. As Rochester is so small that it only requires two high schools, it has little opportunity for appointing principals for them; especially since there is now a law protecting them, and most of them naturally live to a noble age. The fact that there was a place found higher up for the former principal made it possible to perform the rare feat of making a new one. Coupled with this, the announcement of the magnificent salary of $2,200 voted to Mr. Bennett has excited a wide-spread civic interest.

June 8

MARVELOUS INNOVATION TO BE MADE. Commercial courses will now be added to the regular curriculum of the city high schools. As the supply of ribbon clerks, school-marms, governesses, and ladies' companions has come to exceed the demand, the schools have been forced to turn some of them into typists, secretaries, and filing clerks, to preserve the economic balance of the community.

June 9

SCHOLASTIC CIRCLES ROCKED WITH FACTIONAL FIGHT OVER HIGH SCHOOL SORORITIES AND FRATERNITIES. Families, faculties, and student bodies are being split over this fiercely fought issue. Never has there been a controversy so heatedly carried on. While a portion of the parental element and most of the school faculties are pushing the project for dealing death to secret societies among students, the members of such organizations backed by the majority of the student bodies are waging a heroic battle for their right to imitate their elders.

June 10

FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES OFFICIALLY BANNED. Although the opposing element now holds the upper hand the hearts of the vanquished are not hopeless. With true courage and tenacity of purpose they are now making plans to reorganize secretly; members have pledged themselves to do or die, and like martyrs of old signify their willingness to sacrifice all for principle.

September 9

INTERSCHOLASTIC FOOTBALL NOT TO DIE. In spite of all outside opposition, East and West High elevens are being organized. It was feared for a time that this manly game could be lost to youths of our fair city, but these fears are, for the time, securely laid. The reasons advanced for the discontinuing the ancient and honorable game of Rugby in the city high schools are, in the light of sane reason, preposterous. What sort of a parent is it that objects to having his son break half a dozen ribs, and three or four collar-bones a season? Do they desire to develop a race of effeminate dandies who drink tea and shudder at the thought of having their pearly teeth knocked out? If parents have become so lost to all sense of shame, thank heavens, at least, that their sons do not shrink because glory is gory.

September 10

1911

WEST HIGH PRESS CLUB HOLDS BANQUET. President of Club declares that one can not truly appreciate art until he can appreciate food, and that there is no better training for the aspiring reporter than to learn to trace doughnuts to their dens, and discover what cupboards conceal cookies.

February 5

WEST HIGH GIRLS HAVE PINK TEA. Our girls defeat East High at basketball. With as much grace and ease as they balanced their cups at a tea party, the West High girl tossers daintily walked all over their East High sisters to the tune of 35-17. Alice Beals, that model of chic, and basket making, scored 22 points. It is hoped that this score will be a goal for future teams to shoot at, and may they never diminish the ratio. Alma Mater is indeed proud of her daughters.

May 12

PRINCIPAL BENNETT FORBIDS USE OF SCHOOL NAME BY WEST HIGH INDEPENDENT SQUAD. Boys are indignant at ban, as baseball nine with only a few players recruited from ranks of students boasts name of West, while the football eleven composed wholly of students of the school is forbidden to use it.

WEST HIGH BOYS ACCEPT DEFEAT. The West High Independent team will be hereafter known as Occidentals. Although refused permission to use name of WEST, the players have taken a name that has been long and intimately associated with the school.

DIPLOMAS FOR NINETEEN GRADUATES. West High School proudly presents diplomas to large class as first brood of chicks leave Mater's wings. The proudest moment that West will, in all probability, ever know, occurred tonight when she graduated her first class. We wonder what reflected glories she will reap from the honors to be attained by these earnest young people whose youthful fervor and dignity illumined the assembly on this momentous occasion. We trust that they will soon be our great men and women.

January 25

FOURTH ANNUAL WEST HIGH DAY HELD AT CONVENTION HALL. High carnival held court at Convention hall today when West High held its annual West High Day with song and dance and booths filled with fascinating objects. An excellent idea of the fun had by all may be obtained by glancing over the features offered.

February 4

The "cold drinks—coffee—chocolate—sandwich committee" had an intriguing little booth in which all sorts of sandwiches with mysterious fillings might be obtained. They catered to the he-man appetites with good black coffee and hot chocolate, for those whom training rules barred from sipping the national beverage, and for the frailer participants supplied lemonade of a most delightfully frivolous pink color. In all this booth might well be conceded the center of attraction.

A close competitor for honors as favorite was the ice cream booth where delicious dainties of frozen cream were dispensed. King Cream himself sat there enthroned and bestowed his benign blessing with the aid of members of his court.

For two weeks before the event Miss Ruth Crippen went about sweetly urging people to contribute sweetmeats for the confectioner's cave. This same cave exerted a Lorelei attraction over a certain portion of the attendance; whether due to Miss Ruth or its wares is not known for certain.

"Theodore Dossenbach's nine piece orchestra—with chimes" furnished delightful music for the dancers, who applauded its strains with enthusiasm and indulged in the most daring of the new waltz steps.

WEST HIGH'S DEBATE TEAMS CONQUER. Boys' team wins from Lafayette High and downs East by a unanimous vote to retain Amherst cup. West High may be well proud of her orators when such words are blazoned across newspaper pages as appeared today. Our Apollonis Demmosthenes with true filial piety are extending their efforts to win laurels with which to crown the brow of their Alma Mater.

April 4

Moreover, our girls neatly lifted the Delta Phi Cup from East on the question "Resolved: that it is for the best interest of New York State that the franchise be extended to women on the same terms on which it is now exercised by men."

1913

PRACTICAL PHYSICS COURSE OCCUPIES LABORATORY IN BASEMENT OF WEST HIGH SCHOOL. Educators have come to realize that the present system of defined courses makes no provision for those who do not contemplate some certain profession. There is, probably, no man alive who will not find a use for a certain amount of practical physics in tinkering around his home. On the other hand there are not so many who will make use of abstract technical knowledge in their future life work. Taking all this into consideration, an experiment is in the process of being tried here at West. A laboratory has been fitted out in the basement and in it a course in "practical physics" is being administered. So far the boys in the course have wired the shop for electricity, installed pipes and fittings for gas and compressed air, mounted a gas engine on a concrete block, built a dynamo, and installed a steam engine.

January 12

WEST HIGH DANCES AT JUNIOR PROM IN SIBLEY HALL. One of the most awaited for and thrilling functions of the year took place last evening when the West High School Junior Prom was held at Sibley Hall. It was pleasing to see the dignity and decorum which prevailed throughout the evening. The credit for this charm deservedly goes to Miss Katherine Wetmore, faculty dancing advisor, who, previous to the ball, decreed that there would be none of the popular Bostons, Tangoes, one-steps, or dips at any more West High dances. It was also due to Miss Wetmore's efforts that smoking in the foyer during intermission was eliminated. The dance was held from eight-thirty to twelve o'clock.

SEVENTH PERIOD TO BE ADDED TO SCHOOL DAY. Principals Wilcox and Bennet have approved an 'extra' being added to School day. This period will be obtained by shortening the five minute interval between classes and by eliminating the fifteen minute recreation period in the morning. This extra period will be devoted to study halls, as it is felt that the greatest need of the pupil today is supervised study. Since the home fails to supply this necessity it falls perforce to the lot of the school.

INDIGNANT PARENT'S LETTER. Today in the paper a letter signed "Indignant Parent" expressed what is the concensus of opinion among a great many of the community. The letter stated with great force that permitting mere children to have Senior Balls, Junior Proms, subscription dances, plays and such affairs, was to destroy their innocence, and that the boy-and-girl associations engendered from these forms of social contact result in grave consequences—moral ruin.

December 14

Furthermore it expressed a strong opinion that the White Plague Campaigns, now being conducted in the schools, which so vividly express the horrors of that awful disease, consumption, are extremely detrimental to many delicate and sensitive children.

1914

LAWLESS GANG WORKS HAVOC AT WEST HIGH. The West High School has been forced to ask for better police protection as bands of neighborhood rowdies amuse themselves by destroying the school property. Twenty concrete benches that were placed about the walks of the campus last fall are, alas, no more. The ivy, which was planted to cover its walls with a clinging cloak, has been so stunted by continual trampling that only a shoot or two, more hardy than the rest, has survived. Windows have been broken by countless numbers, but saddest and most despicable of all, the Finch Memorial Fountain in the court was broken, last night, into a thousand pieces. Previous vandalism has been born with philosophical fortitude, but this last outrage is not to be endured calmly. Something must be done, and that quickly.

May 15

OLD FASHIONED DISCIPLINE TO CURB PRECOCITY. William Marvin Bennett, principal of West High School, in a straight-forward article put the problem of suppressing modern youth squarely up to their parents. After stating in detail the efforts made by the school to curtail social affairs among the student body, hc said point blank that parents should meet the school half way by doing likewise. Stricter watch over social indulgences and supervised work is the answer to the present day problem, says Mr. Bennett.

WEST HIGH GLEE CLUBS FEATURE SOLO BY CHARLES HEADLY. Charles Headly, who has become the star of West High's Glee Club, was the bright and shining light of the concert given last evening. The performance of the club as a body was equal to the best of the solo performances.

STUDENTS OF WEST HIGH HOLD THEIR FIRST ANNUAL "TREE DAY" ON SCHOOL LAWN. Today West celebrated the first Tree Day. The exercises were lovely, so inspiring. Elois Smith of the class of 1914 received the spade, all tied with ribbons, from the class of 1913. The spade is to plant the tree with. Then the classes danced beautifully in celebration. The Sophomores danced the "Norwegian Mountain March" and the "Ace of Diamonds". The Freshmen danced the Maypole Dance. The Seniors, "Dance Versuvrianne" and "Eloise Grovatte". and the Juniors took the parts of Chrysanthemum girls and spirits of the tree in a pageant staged by Mrs. Ellis.

RESTORATION OF RUGBY FOOTBALL FAVORED BY BOARD OF EDUCATION. That's the headline in the paper today. Something like it ought to be, isn't it? Can you imagine ever being September without it? It's just too absurd! I suppose 19 papa and mamma were afraid sonny might break a bone or two. Well, I, for one, am glad it's coming back. Maybe we'll have a little excitement now. And wouldn't it be just too thrilling—going to a dance with somebody with his arm in a sling, and saying, "Oh, yes, Jack broke it playing football last Saturday!"

BOB HARMON TAKES CHAIR AS OCCIDENT EDITOR. Wouldn't it be just marvelous to have your name in the paper like that? I cut out his picture too and put it up beside my mirror. He's so September good looking and he says such clever things. 20 I'll bet the Occident will be good now. He was at Plattsburg all summer, he surely ought to know how to give orders. Wouldn't it be funny if he ran it like an army and everyone saluted him?

WEST HIGH ALUMNUS AMONG FACULTY. Just think, I discovered today that Mr. September Lockwood used to go to West. Isn't that 23 marvelous? He must be awfully young! I hope I have him.

OCCIDENT SHORT STORY CONTEST RESULTS ANNOUNCED. They announced the winners of the short story contest today. I thought I might have some chance of winning something, but I guess I didn't. The winners were: Dorothy Kneale, first; Lucius Powell, second; Luther Smeltzer, third; Mary Bettvs, fourth. There was honorable mention for Hortense Cazeau, Dorothy Fox, Barry Clark. Two hundred and ten stories were entered in the contest.

KNOW WEST HIGH WEEK. This year they're going to have a "Know West High Week" from December 1 to December 5. I think that is one good idea—except—from the program they've mapped out people will think all we do is have a good time. They've passed out little mimeographed programs like this:

Know West High Week

December 1-5 This is the time for that visit you have been going to make, to see your children's daily work. You will be welcome.

Tuesday evening This is our date for open house. If you can't come for the day, come for this evening at least; but, if you can, do both.

December 2 At 7:30 The teachers will be in their rooms to meet you. Guides will direct you to the people you want to see.

GRADUATION OF CLASS OF JANUARY '24. Another graduation! Just like all the rest! Why don't they ever do anything interesting? The only thing in the whole program, worthwhile, was Ken Loysen's singing. He has such a gorgeous voice. I could listen to him all day! Oh, yes, and the President of the Board of Education gave out the diplomas. Louise Gelli is guardian of the flag, and Chauncey Martin is standard bearer. The rest on the honor roll are: Virginia Chase, Elizabeth Helen, Rolf Bates, Ruth Farnam, Lydia Holbert, George Fallison, Helen Fremd, Althea Persse, William Lutz, Kathryne Gehrke, Robert Salter.

1925

FACULTY GIVE PLAY FOR THE CHILDREN'S MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND. The faculty gave a play, this evening, called "Ice-bound" by Owen Davis. I thought it was awfully good; maybe it was because I'd read the play before and liked it. It was some fun to see the teachers up there. Mr. Spinning was just too funny for words. I don't mean he was funny, but it was just hilarious to see him up there.

May 8

WEST HIGH ORCHESTRA AND BAND RECITAL. The Orchestra and Band gave the most perfectly marvelous recital last night! Of course the orchestra and band themselves were marvelous, but the specialty numbers were the best. Louise Leonard sang, and her voice was just as exquisite as it always is. Helen Rachwalski played her violin, and there was a string quartet. But (and this is the great thing) they had a saxophone solo and a saxophone quartet!! William Santucci played the sax solo, a piece called "Erica", and oh, it was marvelous! The quartet was composed of Bill Santucci, Nelson Smith, Elbert Hancock, and David Wright. They played the Quartet from "Rigoletto", and it was better than any singing you ever heard. I wish they'd play all opera on saxophones.

April 10

GLEE CLUB CONCERT. Lovely! Lovely! Lovely! all except the recitation. Where on earth did they ever get the wild idea of having a "recitation" at a glee club concert? Oh, well, considering the rest of it, I suppose you have to overlook a little thing like that. It was just—well,—it was completely satisfactory! AND JIMMY GALLOWAY SANG—oh, I think he's simply marvelous! I just love to hear him. I think he's as good as John McCormack. Of course all the rest were marvelous, too. Doris Davison has a lovely contralto voice, and of course Flo Knope's violin performed its usual magic. Louise Leonard sang "Ave Maria" and "Spring", and Chalres Tavrakas, a fine Baritone, sang "Caro Mio Bien", and "Just Sittin' Thinkin' ".

April 20

OH! WHAT AN ASSEMBLY! We had the most marvelous time today. The "Mask and Wig" club of the University of Pennsylvania was in town on their way to Buffalo, they gave an impromptu performance of parts from their play, or what ever you want to call it, "Juan of Arkansas". It was perfectly wonderful! And how they can sing and dance. There were some tenor solos by members of the chorus, and they sang one, an original composition, that made you laugh 'till your sides ached. They had to give three encores of it. And the fellow who played the saws—you never heard anything like it in all your life! It was great music, too. Then Mr. Mc Clellan of the English department of the college gave a speech on college life. Even that was good. Everything was. I wish we could have a few more assemblies like that.

April 21

I just heard today that Miss See died. She's our teacher, and such a darling. It doesn't seem right. She was such a wonderful artist—she was painting the Murals in the hall—on the second floor across from the library. The last panel isn't done; I wonder if anyone will ever finish it? My, I wish I were as clever as she! and she studied for years. She was one of the first pupils in the freehand drawing and painting courses at Mechanics—her father was one of the founders, William See, the architect, you know—and she studied under Dow, Chase, and Du Mond. I wonder how many people know that, or appreciate her?

1926

TEA IN ASSEMBLY. The girls of June 1926 had a tea in the assembly today for parents and such things. It was rather fun, but it's an awfully awkward place to hold a cup in. The arms of the seats aren't big enough to set anything on, so all they do is get in the way. They had some funny stuff on the stage tho', so it wasn't so bad.

May 21

COMBINED GLEE CLUBS HOLD CONCERT. It really was an awfully spiffy affair. I mean it was good. You could tell that just by looking at the programme. First, the combined clubs sang "The Singer", appropriate, wasn't it? Then Jerome Smith sang "Morning" and "Cindy". Jerry is the most darling tenor! The boys' club sang "Sea Fever", and "The Garden of Your Heart". They were awfully good. Vi Rankin sang "Danny Boy", and "Can't Remember". I think she's perfectly adorable, and she has the loveliest voice! She simply made me cry when she was singing "Danny Boy". Frank Stevens, he has the most gorgeous tenor voice, sang "The Nightingale", and "Call Me Back". Then, the Instrumental Ensemble played "La Paloma", and "Pas des Escharpes" from Ballet Symonique, "Callirhoe" (isn't that the most awful tongue twister?).

MISS TRIPP IN PAPER, (Good heavens I haven't written a thing in here for over a year. But then, there hasn't been anything special worth writing about. Oh well—I mean her picture was.) The September 26 faculty is going to give a play next Friday and Saturday. The name of the play is "Tweedles". The proceeds (if there are any) go to the Students' Scholarship fund. Miss Tripp is the "director", that's why she had her picture in the paper.

WEST HIGH ALUMNI TO HOLD REUNION. Tomorrow at 12:30 the alumni are going to start their reunion. West graduated its first class in 1906, which gave it five or six alumni. It has been adding December 21 to them ever since until now it has 2,763 of 'em. When I get out in another half a' dozen years or so, it will have another one.

FORMER WEST HIGH STUDENTS AMONG NEW PHI BETA'S. They've just announced the election of four men, and twelve women, from the U. of R. to Phi Beta Kappa. Four of them were graduates April 25 from West, Arthur A. Moehlman, Adelaide E. Dorn, Florence E. Swinburne, and Dorothy Wellington. I'd say we were pretty well represented.

'THANK YOU' IS VERY PLEASING. I mean the Junior play was. It was simply delicious. LeRoy Gates was a "preacher" in it, and he sure knew his sermons. Phyllis Holton was a "coy French April 28 maid" who "got her man", and how she did! Ray Doyle was the "man"—with lots of money. Oh, Man! And Bob Metzdorf was a drunk. I never saw anything so funny. He ought to go on the stage. I mean he really had! The rest of the cast was Marcia Randall, Evelyn Millner, Betty Brigham, Jean Boyd, Dick Bennett, Bob Fagan, Burton Schaefer, Slater Conn, Alfred Delgado, Raymond Barker, Bob McCormack, Bob Leinen, and Franklyn Hutchinson.

OCCIDENT ISSUES SCANDAL SHEET! They have finally printed their "Dusty Mirror" and is it good?! It's perfectly hilarious. On the front page they had Mr. Spinning advocating hooped-skirts. Im- June 9 agine! Inside they had the craziest stuff, a faculty elopement (which wasn't true of course), a picture of an auto, taken about twenty years ago, that they said was Mr. Bennett's new car, a picture of Wilfred Despard who was supposed to be a mumbledy-pegger, and perfectly screaming articles about Marble's Marble Team, and Sauer's Sling-shot Shooters.

ANGEVINE HAS CROSS COUNTRY OUT. That sounds as if the country was cross, but what I really mean is he called out the squad. Don Lyons was telling me about it. He said they'd have only four September "letter men" left, but that there was some 17 good new material, and we ought to have a pretty good season. Ed Pike and George Leadley are booking the opposition.

ORANGE AND BLACK RETAIN SOCCER TROPHY. Whoopee! Maybe we aren't good, and there was a marvelous piece in the Occident, two whole pages, with the whole history of the season in it. November It told all about who was who, and why, 20 who was on the team, who had been injured, and so forth. We only had one defeat this year. I bet next year we won't have any! and did you ever?! "Mike" says he's going to give every one on the team a banana-split, for winning!

'SIGN HERE PLEASE' SIGNAL SUCCESS. Well, here's our senior play that really is good. I mean was. It was last night. Every thing about it was the best ever. It had the cleverest plot, and the December acting was smooth! Ruth Line played 8 Honor Bright, that's the heroine, and she was perfectly darling. Bob McCormack was one handsome hero, too. The key character was "Mrs. Barrington", and was played by Adelaide Geraghty. She certainly was marvelously clever! The Rt. Rev. William Carton, and his wife, were "rendered" (I love that word) by Raymond Barker, and Phyllis Holton. Evelyn Millner had the role of Tot Marvel. Jean Boyd was hilariously funny as the cook. Every one in it or connected with it certainly deserves a big bouquet.

BASKET BALL SCHEDULE ISSUED. They announced the basket ball schedule for the season, today. December 7, West vs. Tech, at the Armory; December 21, West vs. Marshall, at Marshall; the December alumni game; January 4, West vs. Charlotte, 19 at West; January 8, West vs. Monroe at West; January 11, West vs. East, at the Armory; January 18, West vs. Tech, at Tech; February 1, West vs. East, at the Armory; February 8, West vs. Marshall, at West; February 15, West vs. Charlotte, at Charlotte; February 20, West vs. Monroe, at Monroe; February 27, West vs. U. of R. Frosh, at the U. of R. Gym. I saw the game Friday, 7, it wasn't so good. I sure hope the rest are more exciting.

AND NOW WHAT IS GOING TO HAPPEN? Exams are over! But, oh! well, I'm glad they're over, any way. They gave me grey hairs, they really did. They were absolutely awful. Regents! But even January so, expecting them was the worst part of it. 23 But I'm through, comfortably, and I guess I'll get my little diploma, all right. So "No More Worrying". I guess this will be about the last thing I'll write about West, and I don't think I'm awfully glad, either————————
